Brief topics covered

Our nation has rapidly industrialised, which has increased the use of machinery in industry. Although using machinery increases production capacities, accidents and malfunctions can be potential sources of financial loss and even force a company to close its doors. Even with adequate maintenance and care, accidents can still happen with machinery. Needless to say, this adds significant financial burdens to the owners or lessees of such Plant, equipment & machinery.

Operational Engineering Insurances thus seek to provide protection to Corporates & Contractors using fixed & mobile Mechanical, Electrical & Electronic Machineries of all sizes & capacities through All-risks forms widely used in India & Internationally.
