2-Day Workshop on Strengthening Grievance Redressal

Programme Overview

The Indian insurance sector is undergoing a major transformation following the Insurance Act, 2025 amendments and intensified regulatory focus on policyholder protection, transparency, and market conduct. Grievance redressal is now recognised as a critical governance function influencing trust, compliance, and institutional credibility. As emphasised by the Chairman, IRDAI, “Choose the customer when in doubt, treat grievances as early warnings, and let every resolution strengthen trust – not just close a case.” Regulatory expectations around timeliness, quality, and fairness have risen sharply, making grievance management a key indicator of customer centricity and compliance culture. The Chairman, IRDAI, has further noted, “When a grievance is raised, it is a signal that the system needs to listen – how we respond shapes trust in insurance and institutions.” In this context, the Institute of Insurance and Risk Management (IIRM) has designed the Capacity Building Programme on Strengthening Grievance Redressal to equip teams with practical, regulation-aligned capabilities for professional, consistent, and trust-enhancing grievance management.

Programme Objectives

The programme aims to:

- Strengthen understanding of the regulatory framework for grievance redressal, including IRDAI guidelines and the Insurance Ombudsman and other mechanisms.
- Enhance capability to resolve grievances fairly, efficiently, and within prescribed timelines
- Improve the quality and legal defensibility of grievance responses, including speaking orders
- Reduce escalation of grievances to Ombudsman, courts, and regulators
- Institutionalise consistent, standardised, and customer-centric grievance handling practices across the organisation
